Description

This antique 18ct gold ring is set with five old cut diamonds, each displaying a warm glow characteristic of their hand-cut style. The stones are held in traditional claw settings, with finely scrolled edges along the gallery adding a touch of detail. A refined design that reflects the enduring style of antique jewellery. Part of our antique diamond ring collection. SIZE UK M / US 6 - Free sizing available SPECIFICATION Diamonds total weight. 0.83 carat Diamond grades. Colour. H - I. Clarity. VS2 Face dimensions. 5 x 17.5mm Weight. 3.1 grams 18k gold ERA Late 19th - Early 20th Century CONDITION Very Good - This antique diamond ring is in overall nice condition. Two of the diamonds have small chips to their crowns, only noticeable through a 10x loupe and not detrimental in any way. Otherwise the diamonds are in good order held safely in their settings. The gold metalwork shows only very light signs of any wear and has a lovely gleam.
