Description

This is a very pretty, vibrant watercolour of flowers by Catherine Goring Thomas painted in 1846. The botanical study is beautifully painted and has much charm. It is in really crisp, clean condition and has been remounted back into its original good quality rosewood frame. The original ring hanger is still present to the top in good useable condition. (photo processing has removed a bit of its detail). The picture measures 29 cms wide by 23 high including the frame. UK insured packing and delivery is £10 The picture measures 29 cms wide by 23 high including the frame. UK insured packing and delivery is £12
