Description

A Regency Beech and Mahogany Unusual Chair with Drawer C1800 Upholstered. An enchanting late Georgian to Regency period upholstered country style beech and mahogany chair with the unusual addition of a single drawer beneath the dish shape, saddle seat. Tastefully upholstered in a 100% wool, tartan fabric within the last 20 years with replacement jute webbing straps, the chair is structurally excellent with no wobbles or loose joints. There are several historic repairs most noticeable to each leg, professional repairs to each end. Just back from our workshop to ensure all joints are strong and even wax over. It is unusual to find a chair with a single drawer, this is not an adapted commode chair. Presence of original inlaid marquetry to the front apron, a curious whilst endearing chair. Its repairs and curiosity make this a charming thing with great character and considerable decorative appeal.
