Description

An utterly delightful English Regency revival 3 tier side table/stand of lovely quality using carefully selected and fine grained mahogany C1900. A very placeable little piece of English furniture. This charming stand possesses some lovely details including – barrel turned columns to each corner, galleried shelves, delicate slender legs, well figured top all terminating on oblique pad feet. So many spaces where this would sit within a period or modern home. Condition is good with sensible and genuine wear - sits firm and is ready for placing after a light hand waxing and polish. A super little piece.
