Description

A wonderful set of four antique Edwardian sterling silver and enamel menu/place card holders which have been designed in the form of game birds depicting a pheasant, snipe, grouse and partridge. Each of the cast silver birds, with gem set eyes, sits neatly on a pink enamelled cylindrical plinth with a section at the rear to house the card. The plinths then rest on a round silver gilt base which completes the overall design. These lovely silver menu holders would make interesting additions to a collection and would make a statement when displayed on the table. They remain in excellent condition. They sit in a fitted box. The place card in the photographs measures 6 cms (2.4") by 6 cms (2.4"). Diameter of each base: 2.2 cms (0.9") Height of pheasant: 5.5 cms (2.2") Height of snipe: 4 cms (1.6") Height of partridge: 3.5 cms (1.4") Height of grouse: 3.5 cms (1.4") Weight: 4.1 troy ounces (126 grams) They were hallmarked in London for 1909 by William Hornby. Complimentary postage is included within the price of these menu/place card holders. If you have any queries, please do not hesitate to contact us.
