Description

An elegant rosewood inlaid settee of refined proportions and excellent craftsmanship. This graceful shaped settee is raised on ring-turned legs terminating in brass castors, combining both style and practicality. The back is adorned with three beautifully executed marquetry panels depicting classical urns and delicate floral motifs, while fine boxwood stringing throughout further enhances the richness of the rosewood veneers and the quality of the workmanship. The settee has recently been reupholstered in a high-quality fabric, complementing its period character while providing modern comfort. Presented in good condition throughout, this is a sophisticated and decorative piece, ideally suited to both traditional and contemporary interiors. Size: Height 31" (79cm) Width 72" (185cm) Depth 25" (64cm) Seat height 21" (53cm) Seat dept 23" (58cm)
