Description

Pair of late C19th / early C20th verdigris patinated copper neo-classical design coach-house style wall lanterns. The tapering glazed bodies with a hinged door to the front below shaped 'pagoda' tops with circular 'vents' and turned classical-style finials to the corners. The interiors with oil-burner style fitments, now having been converted and fitted for electricity. Of good large scale and proportions with a consistent aged verdigris patination. No damage, splits or repairs. In need of re-wiring which can be completed to client's specification. A decorative and functional pair of wall-mounting lanterns of restrained design. H 23" W 13" D 10" Probably French c.1900
