Description

A pair of charming 18th century English landscape drawings in matched antique water gilded frames. These highly decorative pastoral pen and ink and watercolour studies depict scenes from the English countryside as it would have appeared in the eighteenth century. In one the sun streams down upon two country folk returning home over a rustic wooden bridge in a forest clearing. In another fishermen cast their nets into the water in the midst of an expansive mountainous landscape. Both works are in an excellent state of conservation and are ready to hang in slim antique frames with water gilding. Height = 35 cm (13.8") Width = 27 cm (10.6") Depth = 1 cm (0.4")
