Description

(1 OF 4) Available Separately) Pen Ink Wash & Gouache Painting On Board Preserved Under Glass. ABOUT COMPOSER WAGNER Richard Wagner (1813–1883) was a revolutionary German composer, conductor, and theatre director best known for his monumental operas, which he called "music dramas". He transformed classical music by pioneering the Gesamtkunstwerk (the "total work of art"), a concept that unified music, poetry, visual arts, and dramatic staging. ABOUT ARTIST Salvatore Mousù (sometimes spelled Salvator) was a well-known Maltese cultural historian, author, and passionate advocate for the protection of Malta's historic architecture. He previously resided at Villa San Felice, located on Triq il-Gardell in Kappara. A recognized figure within the community, he was a council member for the historical preservation group Din l-Art Helwa, and an avid classical music and Italian opera enthusiast.
