Description

(1 OF 4) Available Separately Pen Ink Wash & Gouache Painting On Board Preserved Under Glass. Johannes Brahms (1833–1897) was a German composer, pianist, and conductor of the Romantic era. Known for his uncompromising perfectionism, he is celebrated for blending the rigorous structural forms of the Classical and Baroque periods with profound Romantic expression, earning him a place among music's "Three Bs" alongside Bach and Beethoven. Key Details & Musical Style While many 19th-century composers embraced flamboyant modernism, Brahms remained deeply committed to traditional forms. His music is characterized by intricate counterpoint, rich harmonies, and rhythmic complexity. ABOUT ARTIST Salvatore Mousù (sometimes spelled Salvator) was a well-known Maltese cultural historian, author, and passionate advocate for the protection of Malta's historic architecture.
