Stunning Pair of Art Nouveau Japanese Nippon / Kinjo Floral Vases – 32.5cm A magnificent pair of antique Japanese Nippon/Kinjo porcelain vases, dating to the Art Nouveau period. Standing an impressive 32.5cm tall, these highly decorative vases feature a beautifully textured surface adorned with vibrant, hand-painted floral decoration in rich, eye-catching colours. Each vase is enhanced by elegant gilded handles with raised detailing, adding both depth and sophistication to its striking design. Their substantial weight and tactile finish reflect the quality of their craftsmanship, making them exceptional display pieces. One has hairline cracks; however, they still display incredibly well. Whether showcased in a traditional or contemporary interior, these impressive vases are sure to bring colour, elegance and character to any setting. Some wear to the gilding is consistent with age. Both are clearly marked to the base with the manufacturer's backstamp. Dimensions: Height: 32.5cm A beautiful and highly decorative pair of Japanese porcelain vases, perfect for collectors of Nippon ware, Art Nouveau ceramics, or anyone seeking an impressive statement piece for the home.
