Description

An elegant antique Victorian mahogany chest of drawers dating to circa 1860, beautifully executed in the refined Sheraton taste and showcasing the timeless proportions and restrained elegance that made Sheraton-inspired furniture highly sought after throughout the nineteenth century. Crafted from richly figured mahogany, the chest features five graduated drawers adorned with attractive ebony and boxwood string inlay, creating crisp architectural lines and subtle decorative contrast. The beautifully selected mahogany displays exceptional colour, depth and natural figuring, enhanced by over 160 years of careful ageing and patination. Retaining its elegant bracket feet, shield-shaped escutcheons and attractive brass swan-neck handles, the chest offers a balance of practicality and sophistication that allows it to work equally well in both traditional and contemporary interiors.
