Description

A timeless vintage ring with elegant period styling, this beautiful 9ct gold sapphire band dates to London 1976. Set with five natural round-cut sapphires, each secured in a classic claw setting, the gemstones are beautifully framed by an intricate twisted rope design, creating wonderful texture and depth across the front of the ring. The sapphires are mounted on a white gold gallery, enhancing their rich blue colour and adding a subtle two-tone contrast against the warm yellow gold band. Openwork shoulders complete the design, giving the ring a light, refined appearance while showcasing the craftsmanship typical of the era. Professionally cleaned and polished in our workshop, this pre-loved ring is presented in excellent vintage condition and is ready to be worn, treasured, or gifted.
