Description

Superb Female Beauty Oil Portrait Painting c. 1820 Georgian Antique Brief Description: This superb early 19th-century oil on panel portrait depicts a beautiful young aristocratic lady seated beside an open window, with her sewing implements arranged before her. Executed with exceptional precision, the painting is a wonderful example of the finely detailed portraiture of the period. The sitter is elegantly attired in a sumptuous silk-lined gown, while her strawberry-blond hair is gracefully gathered into a ponytail. Her delicately modelled features are rendered with remarkable naturalism, lending the portrait an engaging sense of warmth and life. The painting is presented in a high-quality later gilt moulded frame, which complements the work beautifully. Attributes: British School Oil on Panel Circa: 1820-1830 Condition: Both the painting and the frame are offered in an overall very good original condition.
