Description

A beautifully hand-painted Japanese Imari plate, decorated in the classic palette of cobalt blue, iron red and soft gilt touches. The central motif features a stylised floral arrangement, framed by alternating rim panels of blossoms and geometric reserves — a harmonious balance of colour and pattern typical of traditional Imari ware. The reverse carries a simple blue mark within double concentric rings. Vibrant, decorative and full of character, this is a lovely example of export Imari with strong display presence.
