Description

Delightful tray-top pot cupboard, crafted from solid mahogany in excellent antique condition. This exquisite piece showcases a single flame mahogany veneered door, adorned with an embossed round brass handle, offering both elegance and practical storage. The cupboard is supported by beautifully turned legs, enhancing its refined design, while the rich, warm tones of the mahogany and its stunning natural grain lend timeless charm. As with all antique furniture, there are minor imperfections that add character and authenticity to the piece. Ideal as a bedside table, it also makes a striking addition to any space, whether used to display flowers, lamps, or decorative items. Its versatile size and classic design ensure it will look fabulous between doors, under windows, or in any cherished nook of your home. Internal reference : SAI3711
