Description

This antique 18ct gold ring is centred with a beautifully faceted citrine, radiating a rich amber hue that glows warmly in the light. Surrounding it is a halo of rose-cut diamonds, their gentle shimmer adding depth and contrast to the vibrant centre. The ornate openwork shoulders, crafted in gold and silver, display intricate detailing characteristic of fine early to mid Victorian craftsmanship, lending the piece an unmistakable air of period charm. A magnificent ring full of history and character, with a superb balance of colour and design. Part of our antique ring collection.
