Description

We are offering for your home this Leather topped Mahogany Gueridon Table. A circular top covered with green leather, with a decorative wooden edge. A distinctive, flared tri-form (triangular) mahogany base, often featuring flame mahogany veneer. The base is supported by elaborately carved claw feet, sometimes described as griffin feet, which often include scroll and leaf decoration and may have original casters. The design is characteristic of the Empire style, which was strongly inspired by classical antiquity. While many tables of this style from the period featured marble tops, this specific example has a green leather surface, making it a unique piece. The dimensions are 28 inches Tall, and 32 inches Diameter. Delivery within the UK is included in the Price. Shipping to you would be a pleasure to so please do contact us for a quote.
