Description

An attractive and good quality 'Smoker's Bow' or 'Captain's' armchair dating from the late 19th Century. It has a comfortable wide and deep shaped elm seat with broad arms, turned spindles and turned legs joined by a double stretcher. It is approximately 31 1/2" (80cm) high and it is 27" (69cm) wide across the arms. The seat is approximately 20" (51cm) deep and 18" (46cm) high. It is in good condition for its age and it is a strong and sturdy chair. It has developed a lovely aged and a nice warm colour. The chair is not without a few marks and signs of age and use but no major damages and nothing detrimental. It has been cleaned and polished and is ready for use.
