Description

Late Victorian Inlaid Rosewood Display Cabinet Elegant Late Victorian display cabinet is crafted from rosewood with beautiful inlaid detailing. The cabinet features a moulded cornice with a carved undershirt, and a quarter-veneered, featherbanded frieze. The central door showcases a finely inlaid floral motif, framed by a moulded border, giving the piece a classic Victorian aesthetic. Inside, the cabinet offers a practical combination of storage with folio drawers and display space through glazed bevelled doors. The interior is lined with original faded green velvet, adding to the antique charm. Below, a platform shelf provides additional functionality. The piece is supported by turned legs with a platform base and features a decorative brass gallery along the top. Dimensions: Width: 122 cm Depth: 45.5 cm Height: 130 cm
