Description

A quality antique Edwardian silver plated tea tray, beautifully engraved with ornate floral and scrolling decoration. This impressive antique silver plated tea tray dates from circa 1900 and is of generous proportions. The shaped tray features elaborate engraved floral, foliate and scrolling decoration surrounding a vacant central cartouche. It is finished with a decorative pierced gallery, gadrooned border and a pair of integrated carrying handles. Raised on four charming shell-shaped feet, this elegant antique tray is both decorative and practical. A wonderful antique display piece, ideal for serving drinks, presenting a tea service or adding traditional elegance to a dining room, drawing room or drinks cabinet. Condition In good antique condition with light surface marks and gentle wear consistent with age and use.
