Vintage Marcel Boucher Mother of Pearl Ear Clips

Price

SoldItem Reference: SA1224497*Date of manufacture: 1960

Description

A fantastic pair of vintage clip-on earrings by Marcel Boucher, a French jeweller who set up in New York from the 1920s and, having worked for high-end jewellery houses, went on to establish his own Marcel Boucher and Cie company in 1937 producing fine costume jewellery. The earrings have a typically flowing textured surface, each holding a long sabre-shaped piece of mother of pearl with a lovely pink-green iridescence. SIZE: One of the earrings is 6cm long, the other 6.3cm. WEIGHT: 16.5g. MATERIALS: Gold-tone metal, mother of pearl. HALLMARKS/STAMPS: Both earrings are stamped © BOUCHER. The clips are marked US PAT 2668341 - a patent which was granted in 1954, so indicating a manufacture date in the late 1950s-1960s. CONDITION: In very good vintage condition with light surface wear and nice snappy clips. ERA: Estimated 1950s/60s.
