Description

Fine Late 19th Century Bronze Figure Signed Lemoyne We are pleased to offer an impressive antique bronze figure of a classical youth signed Lemoyne to the rocky base. The figure, confidently posed, stands barefoot, raising a laurel wreath in his right hand and holding a classical cup in his left – an allegory of Victory or Triumph. The modelling shows good anatomical detail, typical of the Beaux-Arts tradition. The bronze retains its original dark brown patina with natural wear to the high points. Subtle casting lines are visible to the upper arms. Two small drill holes to the front of the base indicate where a title plaque was once mounted. Dimensions: 59 cm high × 20 cm wide × 25 cm deep Good original condition, with minor wear and small surface marks in keeping with age.
