Description

A fine Bracket clock of small proportions with a convex dial signed Charles Pratt of London. This clock really does need to be seen to fully appreciate the small size. A wonderful brass inlaid Mahogany case with an engraved cast bezel with bezel lock. Above the arch, a cast Pineapple finial and standing on polished brass ball feet. The twin fusee movement is of high quality and typical of Charles Pratt and his high quality workmanship. Circa 1830. Charles was working from around 1825 to 1844. Standing 39cm high to the tip of the finial, 18cm wide and 11cm deep.

Internal Ref: Charles Pratt
