Description

My second carpet with this great combination of colour size and design; The beautiful sky blue main border and tomato red field with an allover design in a squarish size. A very attractive and uncommon decorative carpet from North West Persia, an absolute gem for putting a room together. I guarantee will look amazing in your home and so many lovely colours to work with. And with a very similar one I currently have in stock you could divide a large room into two halves beautifully! 10'2" x 12'4"
