Description

A superb early Moorcroft Claremont vase with soft green background made for Liberty's, signed William Moorcroft c.1910. Bulbous base with broad slightly bulbous neck above, which is flared at the rim. The vase decorated with a continuous band of large tube lined toadstools with smaller ones sat at the base. The background painted in a soft green with the washed in dark reds and blues. The execution of the design and colourways typical of early pieces commissioned by Liberty's. Bears William Moorcroft's signature to the base, along with 'Made For Liberty'. Presented in immaculate perfect condition. Keep up to date via our Instagram channel - sturmansantiques.
