Description

The rails stamped with reference number 5876. In terms of maker, the firm of Wylie & Lohead of Glasgow are worth considering as a candidate, so too John Taylor of Edinburgh. 88cm high x 44cm wide x 43cm deep. At some point in time the chair was possibly in the collection of Cawdor Castle. Structurally sound with no repairs. There's a smidge of movement where the back joins the seat due to the shrinkage gap. The seat has a few minor marks and fading, (star stickers to the back included at no extra cost), see images.
