Description

A good 17th-century moulded dresser base of an unusual and rare small size, having a two-piece top with a moulded edge above two drawers decorated with applied geometric mouldings and standing on boldly turned front legs. Of a wonderful, rich, warm colour and well-burnished patina in excellent condition, having just one half of a drawer bottom replaced. The drawer knobs are later, and the piece retains all the original mouldings. Circa 1670.
