Description

A fine set of six Scottish sterling silver grapefruit spoons by Hamilton & Inches, fully hallmarked for Edinburgh, 1923. The spoons are of elegant plain form, each with an elongated pointed bowl specifically designed for grapefruit and other citrus fruits, together with a gently tapered handle and rounded terminal. Hamilton & Inches, founded in Edinburgh in 1866, is one of Scotland's most distinguished names in fine jewellery and silverware, with a long-standing reputation for exceptional quality and craftsmanship. The set is in excellent antique condition, with only minimal signs of age and use. The hallmarks are clear and well defined. An attractive and practical set of early 20th-century Scottish silver, equally suitable for use, display or as a thoughtful gift. Maker: Hamilton & Inches Assay office: Edinburgh Date: 1923 Material: Sterling silver Weight: 110 grams / approximately 3.54 troy ounces Condition: Excellent
