Description

Beautiful little side cabinet in walnut, attributed to the influential Arts & Crafts maker's and retailers Liberty & Co. of London c.1895. The dramatic design is typical of the work of Leonard Wyburd for Liberty. Over-hanging top with two shelves, a gallery of turned spindles and arched canopy on turned columns. Supported on angled stays over the base with sloping sides. Featuring a small cupboard (internal depth 14½") with original coloured and textured leaded glass panel in the door, over the open base with a larger repeat of the arched canopy used on the top. Shaped apron between the feet at the front and sides. Walnut panelled sides and back boards. Repair to the back foot at the left hand side, otherwise excellent original condition, cleaned and waxed in our workshops. Key supplied. Width: 48" (122 cm) Height: 63" (160 cm) Depth: 16.5" (42 cm)

Internal Ref: 38506
