Description

A limited edition colour lithograph by the British artist John Bond, titled The Bonfire, depicting two figures tending a smoking bonfire in an open landscape beneath an expansive sky. Rendered in Bond's characteristic soft, atmospheric palette, the composition beautifully captures the tranquillity of the English countryside and the fleeting quality of light. The print is signed in pencil by the artist to the lower margin and numbered 489/500, with the title inscribed within the image. Presented in a gilt frame with a cream mount. Late 20thc

Internal Ref: C2725
