Description

Produced by the Royal Worcester Porcelain Company in 1928, this fine cabinet plate is hand-painted and signed by the accomplished factory artist Albert Shuck. The underside retains the original Bonhams auction labels, providing documented auction provenance. The richly decorated cobalt blue border is enhanced with burnished hand-applied gold ornament and finely executed raised jewelled (pearl) gilding, framing the beautifully painted fruit study. The central reserve depicts two ripe pears and a cluster of dark grapes amongst delicate flowering sprays. The careful tonal modelling and naturalistic composition reflect the high standards for which Royal Worcester fruit painters became internationally celebrated. Albert Shuck (1880-1961) belonged to the distinguished generation of Royal Worcester artists who brought the factory's painted-fruit department to international prominence during the 1920s and 1930s. Specialising in fruit, orchids and flowers, he remains one of the recognised names of the classic Worcester school, with signed cabinet plates continuing to enjoy strong collector demand. The underside bears the authentic purple Royal Worcester crowned factory mark with...
