Description

Produced by the Royal Worcester Porcelain Company and bearing the date code for 1911, this elegant cabinet plate is signed by the celebrated fruit painter Richard Sebright. The underside retains the original Bonhams auction label, providing documented auction provenance. The central reserve is painted with two richly coloured apples and a naturalistic vine branch in luminous overglaze enamels. Sebright's refined brushwork and delicate tonal transitions create an exceptionally realistic still life, demonstrating the artistry that established him as Royal Worcester's most distinguished fruit painter. Richard Sebright is officially recognised as the greatest fruit painter in the history of Royal Worcester. His signed works represent the highest achievement of the factory's celebrated Painted Fruit tradition and continue to command exceptional collector interest. The broad Pattern W8346 border is richly decorated with a warm yellow ground, intricate burnished hand-applied gilding, finely executed raised jewelled ornament and elegant scrolling foliate decoration. The reverse bears the official Royal Worcester factory backstamp with the date code for 1911, pattern number W83...
