Description

A fine George III octagonal cellarette (wine cooler). It is made from mahogany with satinwood stringing and the lid bearing an inlaid sunburst medallion. It is in original condition and stands on four tapered legs with the original brass castors. It can still be useful for storing some wine and also makes a good and very attractive side table. Key present. Circa 1770. We can discuss delivery options in UK mainland and can calculate the cost for international delivery. Payment by bank transfer, PayPal or card payment over the phone.
