Description

A superb example of a Flemish Carved Oak Cabinet dating to the late 18th Century. Fine carvings adorn the piece and sits on large Dutch bun feet. 3 figures hold up the top and it comes apart into 3 sections. There are 2 doors in the top opening into the top cupboard and a pair of doors below open into the base. Keys are present. We have very lightly bleached it just to remove years of grime and it now shows in an excellent state and in overall excellent condition for the home. This piece is extremely rare and has been in a private collection since the 1980s. Height 204 cm Width 144 cm Depth 62 cm
