Description

ESTIMATED VALUE £2250 A quality Bronze Sculpture depicting a native american sioux warrier on horseback negotiating down a steep rocky slope. The original sold at Christies for $146,000 USD This large and heavy sculpture has been hand crafted around the early 20th Century and is produced after the famous original of 1903 by Frederic Remington. The detail is very good with a patina throughout being a dark metallic lustre, with some areas having been over dusted and looking brighter and cleaner. This bronze is a tremendous weight and would surprise most people when trying to pick it up. There should be a fine braided copper rein but this is absent. This could easily be made and replaced. CONDITION There is no damage at all or other missing parts. MEASUREMENTS Height : 26 Inches Width : 18 Inches (Tip of tail to nose) Depth : 8.5 Inches Base DELIVERY FREE UK SUPPLY BY MAN & VAN NO INTERNATIONAL EXPORT ENQUIRE : 0116 2681106 ESTIMATED AT £2250 OR BEST BID Lot / 0037/RBC
