Description

This exquisite Antique Victorian ring dazzles with three graceful natural pearls, elegantly alternating with two sparkling old-cut Diamonds totalling 0.30ct, all set in radiant 18ct yellow gold. This is a true piece of history from a bygone era where pearls adorned so many delicate hands as a symbol of purity. Beautifully set in a fine pierced gallery, this ring is a testament to the jeweller who lovingly made it over 100 years ago. This fabulous Victorian ring would make the perfect stacking band or a great addition to any collection.
