Description

A good quality 1930s English wingback armchair, professionally and recently reupholstered in Mulberry Home Shetland Plaid wool fabric in Teal (FD344/R11). The chair retains its original beech frame with a traditional coil-sprung seat, turned hardwood legs and original metal cup castors probably put on 50/60's to heighten chair and ease of movement. During re upholstery, several earlier layers of upholstery were uncovered, confirming its age and traditional construction. The generous proportions, high winged back and deep sprung seat make this an exceptionally comfortable armchair, equally suited to a sitting room, library, study or bedroom. The Mulberry Shetland Plaid fabric is a premium Scottish-woven wool, chosen for its durability and timeless country house character. The chair has been professionally upholstered to a high standard and is ready for immediate use. Other measurements : Seat height: 47 cm and Arm height: 56 cm, Seat Depth 56 cm Condition: Excellent condition following professional re upholstery. The frame is solid, the traditional sprung seat is supportive and comfortable, and the chair is ready for use. There is minor age-related wear to the hardwood...
