Description

A good antique elm blanket box dating from the mid to late 19th century with a lovely rich patina and colour. It is well made with metal carrying handles, a brass escutcheon and its original strap hinges. A good size for a coffee table, end of the bed storage or toy trunk. It is in good condition for its age. It is strong and sturdy and generally clean and tidy inside. There are signs of use and age, some general knocks and marks and a small repair to a section of the moulded edge but nothing untoward or detrimental. There are signs of old woodworm and a few nibbles in places which has all been treated as a precaution and hasn't affected the box structurally or aesthetically. It has been cleaned and gently polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
