Description

This is an antique standard lamp. An English, mahogany lounge reading light in William IV revival taste, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1890. Timeless appeal with great proportion and fine revival appearance. Displays a desirable aged patina and in good order. Select stocks present fine grain interest with deep caramel hues throughout. Charming William IV revival aesthetic adds a distinctive presence. Quality later shade, with a tapering form and faux leather texture. Dressed with tassels to the lower edge with tactile brushed ends. Standard bayonet mount atop the turned and collared support. Supplied with a standard bayonet bulb for immediate use. Stand accentuated with gadrooning and acanthus bulb carving. Tripod base with a trio of broad cabriole legs, accentuated with relief to the knee. Superb ball and claw feet with nicely defined detail. Generous length of quality braided cable, running at approximately 2.7m (106.25"). Cable fitted with a British Standards compliant 3-pin plug (UK Type G). This is a fascinating antique standard lamp, with an attractive stand of rich colour and appealing William IV revival craftsmanship. Ideal for the lounge or library. Delivered...
