Description

This antique Albert Chain features graduated curb links, a T-bar and a double dog clip fastening, measuring a length of 17.5", modelled in sterling silver. An Albert chain is a decorative chain initially used to attach a pocket watch to the wearer's clothing. The chain was named after Prince Albert, who was said to have been fond of wearing watch chains. The Dog clip would have been used to attach a pocket watch or fob, and the T-Bar would go through the buttonhole of a waistcoat to secure it in place.
