| USD $8,796 | EUR 7,606

Item Reference: SA1225537

Date of manufacture: 17th Century

Description

Made in the 17th century, probably as a curtain or to decorate a four poster bed, the unusually fine crewelwork has all the attributes we love about English embroidery; Wonderful, fresh colour; dynamic and realistically drawn vines issuing colourful and diverse flowers. Unusual also to find such a large chunk and it would make a spectacular display item. Clean and professionally conserved. 7'4" x 4'5"
