Description

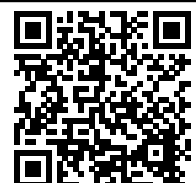

A stunning Victorian antique silver gilt and glass claret jug. Made in Sheffield in 1869 by William and George Sissons. It is in excellent condition with no damage or repairs. The gilding is really good and the glass has ferns etched all around the body. This jug would look even more spectacular with a bottle of claret in it. There are a full set of hallmarks on the neck and part marks underneath and on the lid. The gilding is showing little signs of wear and it would look great in any collection or on any table. Weight; 810 grams or 26 ozst all in. Free delivery in the UK. Payment by bank transfer, card over the phone, PayPal or Klarna. Using Klarna payments can be split over three months.
