Description

This exquisite antique 15ct gold ring dates to Chester, 1890, and features a patterned design that beautifully showcases five vibrant rubies, with stunning scalloped edges. The rich red hues of the rubies are elegantly complemented by the warm tones of the gold band, enhancing the ring's vintage charm. Each stone is securely set, allowing the gemstones to shimmer brilliantly in the light. This unique piece is a stunning accessory with a sense of history and artistry - now over 135 years old! Perfect for special occasions or a remarkable addition to any antique jewellery collection. STONES Ruby METAL 15ct Gold RING SIZE UK - Q 1/2 / US- 8.25 MEASUREMENTS Measures 7mm at the front and tapers 2.94mm at the back Rubies including edges spread 14.5mm across the finger Largest stone measures 2mm WEIGHT 2.54 grams HALLMARKS 15, 625, Chester, Date letter G (1890) E.F.B CONDITION This antique ring shows some light signs of wear and age, but remains in excellent condition overall. There is light surface wear, but the gold remains thick, and the band is ideal for daily wear. The stones are secure with minimal surface wear. There is very little to complain about for a ring of...
