Description

Frederick James Kerr (1853-1936) Cattle Farmland Landscape Watercolour Painting Brief Description: This is a superb, original early 20th-century Impressionist Watercolour Painting depicting a tranquil farming landscape with a horseman passing a river bridge, together with a small herd of dairy cattle that are surrounded by rolling hills and open fields. Painted and signed by the highly sought-after British artist Frederick James Kerr (1853-1936). The wonderful image portrays the shepherds walking towards a small herd of sheep with their black-and-white collie sheepdog. It is a very atmospheric work which is immaculately presented in a vintage glazed gallery frame that retains the stencilled artist's name in the lower centre. condition. Attributes: Watercolour painting Signed: 'F Kerr' Circa: 1920-1930 Condition: Both the painting and the frame are offered in an overall excellent original condition.
