Description

Antique 20th century Edwardian side table in mahogany, very well made and of good quality. Featuring a beautifully proportioned square design with two practical shelves, providing useful display and storage space while maintaining its elegant appearance. Beautifully inlaid with fine satinwood stringing and enhanced by attractive crossbanding throughout, this charming table showcases the refined craftsmanship and decorative detailing associated with the Edwardian period. Its balanced proportions and timeless styling make it a versatile addition to a variety of interiors. Boasting gorgeous mahogany grain and rich colour throughout, this is a highly desirable example with plenty of warmth and character. The combination of quality materials, elegant inlay and practical design makes it both functional and visually appealing. Presented in good condition, displaying beautiful grain, colour and craftsmanship throughout, this attractive Edwardian side table would make a wonderful addition to any home.
