Description

A handsome Georgian style mahogany wardrobe dating to circa 1920. The two cross-banded and string inlaid panelled doors display striking flame mahogany, complemented by a moulded cornice and elegant bracket feet. The interior offers practical hanging space with brass rails and a useful compartment with shelf, making it ideal for modern storage. The wardrobe has a working lock and key, and the removable top cornice allows for easier transportation and installation. Presented in good condition with a rich colour and attractive grain, this is a fine and functional wardrobe.
