Description

An attractive and good quality 'Captain's' elbow chair dating from the early 20th century. It has a comfortable wide and deep elm seat with a curving back supported by turned spindles. It stands on turned legs joined by a double stretcher. It is approximately 31 1/2" (80cm) high and it is 27" (68cm) wide across the arms. The seat is approximately 19" (48cm) deep and 17 1/4" (44cm) high. It is in good condition for its age and displays well. It has a lovely warm colour and is a strong and sturdy chair. The chair is not without a few small marks and signs of age and use but nothing detrimental and no major damages. The chair has been cleaned and lightly polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask. Nationwide delivery available through our network of reliable couriers.
