Description

A large late 19th century highly decorative superbly carved Italian giltwood cushion mirror, probably Florentine. The mirror consists of a superbly carved cresting to the top with floral and scrolling foliate decoration with original bevelled glass in all sections. This leads down to a deep, superbly carved giltwood cushion frame decorated with scrolling foliate and gadrooned decoration. The back has been replaced due to some missing boards. The mirror has original bevelled glass in all sections and both the frame and glass are in very good condition for age, are all of stable construction and can go straight into a home. Size: Height: 64.5" / 164cm Width: 44.75" / 113.5cm Depth: 5.5" / 14cm
