Description

Pair of Early 20th Century Wingback Armchairs Item Code: EL12/775 A handsome pair of early 20th-century wingback armchairs, each with a tall shaped back, pronounced wings, enclosed arms and a loose seat cushion. The chairs are raised on cabriole front legs terminating in carved claw-and-ball feet, with square supports to the rear. Their generous proportions and high backs give them a strong, comfortable presence, making them well suited to a drawing room, library or fireside setting. The existing pale blue patterned upholstery shows wear, discolouration and staining, and the chairs would benefit from re-upholstery. They provide an excellent opportunity to be recovered in a fabric of choice. Key Features * Pair of early 20th-century wingback armchairs * Tall shaped backs with pronounced wings * Enclosed upholstered arms * Loose seat cushions * Cabriole front legs * Carved claw-and-ball feet * Square rear legs * Generous and comfortable proportions * Would benefit from re-upholstery * Minor wear commensurate with age and use Dimensions Width: 79 cm Depth: 85 cm Height: 109 cm
